STEEL ELECTROTYPES .- Salmon and Garnier, in Paris, place the newly-engraved copper plate in the bath, where, by their recently discovered process, it is duly coated with steel without the least hurt to the engraving. In this way is produced a steel plate for a copper plate, and steel being much harder than copper, a much greater number of impressions con be printed from the improved surface than from the simple plate. As soon as it shows signs of wear, the surface of steel is dissolved, and a new surface formed by the means previously employed. This process will tend to reduce the price of really fine engravings, and, if carefully followed up, the last impression will be scarcely less beautiful than the first.

WOOD'S THEATER - THE PARODI OPERA TROUPE. - Last night Donizetti's grand opera, Lucarzia Bongia, was presented at Wood's Theater by the Parodi Opera Troupe, to an audience much larger than that of the previous evening. Parodi, in the role of "Lucrezia," fully sustained her reputa-tion as an artiste. In this role she is acknowledged by everybody to be without a peer. Her voice has ost none of its quality since her last visit to this city and, in fact, we never knew it to possess such volume nd power as it did last evening. Signor Bellini as "Moffio Orsini," became at once a favorite with the audience. The "Brindist" was combered with all the abandon at a espeix that Vestvatil is capable of giving it, and infinitely more faithful to the musical text. Signor Gnone and Signor Soriglia, in their repective roles, gave general satisfaction, and were warmly applauded throughout the Opera. This evening will be presented the Opera of TROVATORE, with Paredi as "Azucena," and Alaineo as "Leonora." AMERICAN OPERA-SINGERS - THE CONCERT

LAST NIGHT .- With one of the leading Prima Donna's of an Italian Opera-troups singing on the same evenin this city, and numerous families who prtronize musical entertainments, absent from home, the attendance in Pike's Opera-house last night must have been gratifying to the distinguished lady complimented, and to her friends. The West End turned out spiritedly. We rejoice that Cinninnati audiences properly appreciate American talent. But to the debut, in Cinciunati, of the buyant Child of Song, who saw before her troops of her girlhood friends Pika's Opera-house has not, in our opinion, bad a vocalist on its boards who has given such general satisfaction, as did Mrs. Varian James. She has been a rollicking, joyous parlor singer in our city, and now, as a beautiful woman, of elegant carriage, full rich voice, powerful in the middle and higher notes she executed choice operatic airs with force and sweetness, and joyous abandon. The duets were given with thrilling effect, and established at once the harmony of the voices of Mr. Cooke and Mrs. James. The American debutante was weathy of the brilliant audience in attendance, and is firmly established as a No. 1 vocalist. Let her be encour aged and sustained. American women should be encouraged to take position in the higher range of opera music-they can and they should.

COVINGTON NEWS.

THE BRIDGE TO BE FINISHED .- Since Miles Greenwood, Esq., of Cincinnati, has accepted of the Presidency of the Covington and Cincinnati Bridge empany, the chances for the completion of the bridge have increased an hundred fold. Dropping in at the office of the company, yesterday, we learned that its affairs were really in a flourishing condition. and that there was a prespect the bridge would be positively finished within a couple of years. There are some certain persons who are prepared to take $300,000 in stock, payable in fifteen years, and will do so just as soon as the company here can secure $20,000 in convertible bonds into preferred stock. Already have $.20,000 of the amount been raised, and the chances are that the remaining $80,000 will be made up before the ensuing spring, when it is pro posed to recommence operations with the $500,000. Thus, in the hands of the company, there will be ample means to finish the structure.

HALIHAN PARDONED .- Not long since we noticed an affair that took place between John Welden and Timothy Haliban, in which Welden was badly cut in the face and head. The authorities had Halihan arraigned, before the Circuit Court, which sentenced him to pay a fine of two hundred dollars, and to be imprisoned in the City Jail for the term of six months. It appears that Hullhan was not a man of bad character, and some of his friends ever since his confinement, have been endeavoring to procure his release, and to a good purpose. Yesterday morning the gentleman who acted as counsel for the prisoner received a telegraph dispatch from the Sovernor, announcing that he had granted a pardon, and Halihan was in consequence released from TRICK OF A NEGRO .- One day last week Daniel Platt, Esq., a well-to-do farmer, living in Union, Boons County, discovered that a fine horse was missing from his stable, one that he valued at $300. Thinking that the thief had come to the city, Mr. Platt came down on Wednesday for the purpose of putting the officers on the scent, and, we believe, he offered a reward for the recovery of the animal. On returning home, we learn, he found his horse was home first. He suspects the negro belonging to a neighbor made use of him to go on a spree, and not eturning as soon as he expected, turned him laces.

NEWPORT NEWS.

Young America Junilant .- The boys appear to be fully aware that their vacation is drawing to a close, and are therefore making the best use they can of the intervening time. Yesterday afternoon groups of them were gathered in suitable places, engaged in playing ball; others were running the streets, and enjoying themselves generally. If the dage, "Those who play hardest during vacation earn fastest in school," be true, we think we can afely say, "Newport against the world!"
